
ANGAS & BREMER CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2015

Wine Introduction

Angas & Bremer takes its name from the two rivers revered as the heart and soul of the region, where vines were first planted over 150 years ago. Despite their long and distinguished history, Langhorne Creek is often regarded as Australia's best kept wine secret. This Cabernet Sauvignon is a dense, with rich dark fruits balanced by smooth, velvety tannins.

Tasting Notes

The wine has lifted aromas of chocolate and dark cherries, with a richly flavoured palate of spicy ripe plum and blackberry that finishes with smooth tannins. With superb length, it drinks beautifully now and will reward patient cellaring.

Winemaker Vintage Notes

A warm season benefitting from cooling afternoon breezes kept overnight temperatures down, enabling steady fruit ripening with vibrant flavour development. Red wines are displaying lovely tension between tannin and acidity with great colour.
