

GULFI NEROJBLEO DOC 2014

Tasting Notes

The intense ruby red of the wine gives of intense notes of red fruit, and ethereal wafts of vanilla. It is elegant and harmonious on the palate, and has a good persistence.

Winemaker Vinification Notes

The grapes, harvested in late September, start fermentation into red wine through a long maceration on the skins. The wine is aged in barriques and tonneaux of French oak, with capacities of 225L and 500L for 12 months. It is then aged in-bottle for at least 1 year.
